The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in three systems. The first system consists of a single staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). It begins with a piano (p) dynamic and a half rest, followed by a crescendo leading to a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with a final quarter rest. The second system contains two staves: an upper staff with a bass clef and a lower staff with a bass clef. The upper staff continues the melody from the first system, featuring a half note and a quarter note, followed by a crescendo. The lower staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with eighth and quarter notes. The third system also consists of two staves, with the upper staff continuing the melody and the lower staff providing accompaniment. The key signature changes to two flats (B-flat and E-flat) in the final measure of this system.
